

Wine Country and the Colorado Monument

October 12-14, 2016
Pre-workshop Tuesday October 11, 2016
Palisade and Grand Junction, Colorado

Painting opportunity on Colorado's Western Slope. From canyons of the Colorado National Monument, to the orchards and vineyards of the Grand Valley, inspiration is at every turn. Three days of demos, tips, and one-on-one attention. Emphasis will be on how to get a successful start on a plein air painting. We will spend time exploring how to capture the rocks and cliffs of the Monument, as well as, getting access to private orchards and vineyards. Optional pre-workshop session includes, color selection (with recipes and sample sheets), finding the best subject, and making the most of your plein air experience. 3 day workshop $350, optional 1 day pre-workshop session $95. $100 deposit. Rooms reserved at the beautiful Los Altos Bed & Breakfast, on 3 ½ private acres, with spectacular views of the cliffs of the Colorado Monument. www.losaltosgrandjunction.com For more information email dfechenbach@qwestoffice.net.
